☺ Welcome back to school! I hope your summer vacation was great. ☺

Materials: Three ring binder with plenty of paper
Blue or black ink pens/ pencils
Highlighter

Attendance: I adhere to the current Weber School District policy for awarding attendance credit.

Make-up Work:

District policy allows students four excused absences before attendance credit is lost. Students may make-up work from excused absences only, and it must be made up in Advisory class or before or after school. Unexcused absences=no credit. It is the student's responsibility to get make-up work before the next Advisory class. All students have one week to make-up the work from an excused absence for full credit; thereafter, make-up work will receive only half credit. If a student has an extended illness, parents should notify the school. Prearranged absences may be made up. Any make-up or late work must be completed and submitted two weeks before the end of the term. Students may not make-up daily bell/ review quizzes, which could equal 10 points per absence and 5 points per tardy.

Late Work: Half credit only and mid-term assignments are one cut-off date. After mid-term, I don't accept work that should have been completed previous to the mid-term.

Rules: No swearing. No electronic devices. No gum, food or drink in the class. Dress code will be enforced. Do not ask to use the hall pass. Use of hall pass could result in a loss of 20 points. Use the restroom before or after class. Come to class prepared. Remain in your seat until the final bell rings.

Curriculum: Reading, writing, speaking, listening, grammar usage, vocabulary, and spelling.

Citizenship: Excessive talking, tardiness, late work, unpreparedness, or lack of respect for teacher, peers, or rules affect your citizenship grade negatively. A phone call home due to unacceptable behavior or cheating of any kind constitutes an automatic U in citizenship.
