

Stephen King Assignment 8

-18-

1. What genre of literature “turns up his dial to ten”?
2. What is Stephen King trying to communicate by describing the genre and why he likes to write about it?
3. List all the things Stephen King learned during the printing and distributing of his version of “The Pit and the Pendulum”?

Stephen King Assignment 9

-19-

1. What was the name of the school newspaper in which Stephen King became the editor?
2. Because of his lack of interest in the school newspaper he created his own paper which was named what?
3. Describe what kind of writing Stephen King did for his paper and the result of the type of writing he did. Also, what did he learn from the experience?

Stephen King Assignment 10

-20-

1. What did the G.C. suggest Stephen King do?
2. What important information did Gould tell King? (Hint= “When you write . . . “)
3. What was the last piece of information Gould and Stephen King ended the chapter with and how can you use this advice for any writing you do?

