1

Pages to read: 46-47

Strategy Inferring Author's Purpose

Focus: The author tells this story from Seaman's point of view. Why do you think she does this?

Respond:

2

Pages to read: 48-49

Strategy Literal Cause and Effect

Focus: Why does Seaman choose to ride in the back of the boat?

Respond:

3

Pages to read: 50-51

Strategy Infer/Questioning the Author

Focus: On p. 51, what is the author trying to tell you about Seaman when she writes, "It was impossible to describe the urge I felt. It was as strong as anything I had ever known. I had to get those squirrels."

Respond:

4

Pages to read: 54-55

Strategy Drawing Conclusions/ Critical Thinking

Focus: Is it reasonable for the Indians to think that Seaman is a bear? Why or why not?

Respond:

5

Page to read: 56-57

Strategy Drawing Conclusions/ Critical Thinking

Focus: What is the significance of Lewis refusing to trade Seaman for the beaver pelts? Do you own something that is so valuable that you wouldn't trade it for anything?

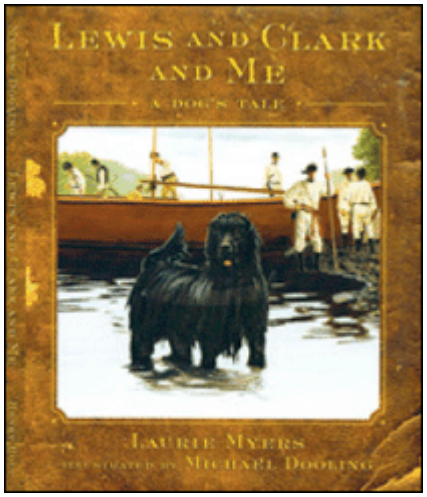
Respond:

"Lewis and Clark and Me'

by

Laurie Myers

Genre _____



Name _____

Date_____