

How to: gallery print text & line

- 1) open photo
- 2) extend canvas (give the image a white border)

STROKE

- 3) select the image (marquee)
 - if the image is on a separate layer from the background
command click the layer to select the image
 - if the image and background are one,
try the magic wand on the white canvas,
then select inverse
- 4) create a new blank layer to put the stroke on
- 5) Edit - Stroke
- 6) create a new blank layer to put the 2nd stroke on
- 7) bring up the rulers -command "R" or -View - Rulers
- 8) drag out guides, on the white canvas to add the 2nd stroke
- 9) drag marquee to guides
- 10) Edit - Stroke

TEXT

- 11) drag another guide to center of the image: vertically
- 12) add text
(choose: center paragraph, text size, black text, font)
-place text curser on the center guide, type title, etc option "G" for ©

how to add ©: ©date, name

UN-STROKE TEXT

- 13) make the stroke layer active (the layer with the line going through the text)
- 14) use marquee tool to select stroke, line going through the text (drag box around text and line)
- 15) select inverse
- 16) on the stroke layer add a layer mask (the line is gone)

-if you forgot to inverse the marquee and the only line you see is going through the text, invert the mask command "I"

To clear guides

-View - Clear Guides

To hide guides or reveal existing guides

-View - Show - Guides or Command ;