

Ramapo
for Children
Founded 1922

Inspiring Children. Enriching Lives.

Talent doesn't make you the most valued member of a team. At Camp Ramapo, attitude is valued over aptitude, effort over ability and cooperation over competition.

Camp Ramapo

is our residential summer camp for boys and girls ages 6-16 with social, emotional and learning challenges.

RAMAPO PROVIDES

- One-to-one staff to child ratio
- Activities individualized to each child's ability
- A warm, supportive, and inclusive atmosphere
- An average of six campers per group

CAMPERS ENJOY

- Swimming (Pool and Lake)
- Team and Individual Sports
- Outdoor Education, Hiking, and Camping
- Reading Enrichment Center
- Science Discovery Workshop
- Chess
- High and Low Ropes Courses
- Arts, Crafts, and Ceramics
- Music, Drama, and Dance
- Canoeing, Kayaking, Boating
- And more!

LEARN, GROW AND HAVE FUN

- Improve peer relationships
- Increase communication skills
- Feel more confident and self-reliant
- Become more independent
- Try new things and experience success

Ramapo campers participate in experiential learning activities that promote essential character values, build social competencies, and enhance self-esteem in special children.

"I just wanted to let you know how grateful I am for Camp Ramapo. Each summer Janey makes friends, she has fun and she learns life's lessons without the heartache of isolation and the anxiety of failure."

- Parent of a camper, August, 2005
